DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the features of claims 16 and 25 in general and the optical performance monitor(see claim 16) or optical line performance monitor(see claim 25) in particular must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

3. Figures 1-2 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

4. The drawings are objected to because the labels for elements 210 and 220(see also the same elements in the other figures) are not the same in the specification and the drawings. A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

5. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: On page 9, lines 18-21 the stated numerals/elements are not shown in Fig. 2(note Fig. 14). Please check the specification for similar errors. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

7. Claims 16-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The specification does not describe or show an optical performance monitor or optical line performance monitor.

8. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

9. Claims 1-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors. Note the preambles of the claims for example. Moreover, the claim language is confusing and lacks clarity (note the method claims in particular). Applicant is requested to reconstruct the claims in a clear manner.

Claims 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential steps, such omission amounting to a gap between the steps. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted steps are: The performance determining step in the protection line that is necessary to perform the method step recited in part e of claim 1.

Claims 4-8 and 13 recite the limitation "said step" in last line of claims 4-8 and line 2 of claim 13. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 13 recites the limitation "said switching" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

10. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

11. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

12. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

13. Claims 1-11 and 14-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fig. 2(Prior Art in the instant application) combined with Fee(U.S. Patent No. 5,777,761).

As the claims are best understood, Fig. 2 in the instant application discloses an optical transmission system that monitors optical signals in a plurality of optical lines(1003,1004) that are initialized as operational(W) and protection(P) lines. Moreover, Fig. 2 shows optical strength determining means(1007,1008) and designating means(control means1009 in association with switch 1005). The only thing missing in Fig. 2 is that the performance of the optical lines is not monitored as already indicated in the specification of the instant application. Fee in Fig. 1 for example discloses an optical transmission system where the performance of a plurality of optical lines(106,104) is monitored and protection switching is performed. Thus, since the technique of performance monitoring and protection switching is well known in the art as demonstrated by Fee. It would have been obvious and desirable to include the feature of performance monitoring taught by Fee in that of the system disclosed in Fig. 2 in order to perform protection switching based on different parameters. Thus, it is argued that the apparatus of the above combination can perform the method of claims 1-11 and 14-15.

Allowable Subject Matter

14. Claims 12-13 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

15. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The art of record taken separately or in combination fail to teach the limitations of the claims.

Conclusion

16. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Hardwick is cited for its teachings of protection switching.
